

Sample: Egress Route Map

What is an egress route?

The Egress route is the path of travel from within the building to the outside. It is the emergency escape route in case of fire or other emergency and includes the fire exits, stairs, and walkways that allow occupants to exit the building.

